Instructions to Students

You must complete ALL tasks within the assessment.

The Pre-release Brief will be issued before the start of Task 1 to allow you to familiarise yourself with the industry context of the business.

During the pre-release window you should spend time becoming familiar with the ways in which digital tools and technologies are used within the identified sector.

It is recommended that you spend no more than four hours in total doing this research.

It is recommended that you research using a range of sources and plan your time carefully.

You are permitted to:

- access the internet
- work with others
- share and receive findings from the investigation you will be carrying out
- complete your investigation both during and outside of supervised sessions
- make notes about your findings.

You will not be allowed to take your notes into the supervised assessment sessions of other tasks.

Activity

The purpose of this activity is to enable you to become familiar with the ways in which digital tools and technologies are used within the retail sector.

Working in groups of up to six students, you must familiarise yourself with, and share understanding of, the use of digital solutions in the retail sector.

You should explore how systems and data are used to:

- manage and protect customer and sales data
- analyse data relating to stock levels, sales trends and customer behaviour, including:
 - exploring sales performance and seasonal trends
 - managing stock and inventory
 - managing customer loyalty and engagement
 - comparing data points to make informed business decisions.

To do this you should:

- carry out independent investigation
- take part in and lead discussions
- share and receive findings with others.

Outcomes for Submission

The purpose of this pre-release is to enable you to become familiar with the ways in which digital is used within the identified industry.

You are not required to submit any evidence for this pre-release.

You may make notes to assist in your research, but you will not be allowed to take these into the assessment sessions, and they will not be submitted for marking.
